JUBILLE CELEBRATIONS – SMITHFIELD VILLAGE

M Jack gave a short verbal report of the successful and well attended celebrations held in the village.

SPEEDING ON THE A6071

Concerns about the excessive speed of traffic on the A6071, particularly on the approach into Smithfield village from the West (Longtown), was again raised by Members of the Parish Council.

The Clerk was asked to follow on the Parish Council's request for permanent Speed Indicator Signs (SIS) on the A6071 as one approaches the village from both the East and West.

Councillor D Shepherd also repeated his offer to discuss with the Police the possibility of setting up a volunteer speed checking group similar to the one in Brampton. D Allan and M Jack offered their services as volunteers to operate the system.
